AMENDED PLAN OF REORGANIZATION FOR SMALL BUSINESS UNDER SUBCHAPTER V OF CHAPTER 11

Mezz 57th LLC (the “Operating Debtor”) and John Barrett Inc. (“JBI”, and collectively with the Operating Debtor, the “Debtors”), hereby propose the following Plan of Reorganization for Small Business Under Subchapter V of Chapter 11 (the “Plan”).

BACKGROUND¹

A. Description and History of the Debtors’ Business

The Operating Debtor is a high end hairdressing salon located on 57th Street in Manhattan, New York. Its founder, John Barrett, has been a leader in the industry for over 23 years. Mr. Barrett opened the Operating Debtor (d/b/a John Barrett Salon), in April 2019. Towards the end of 2019, it was in the process of certain talent acquisitions that would have driven the revenue and prestige, and most importantly client satisfaction. And then the Covid-19 Pandemic ground everything to an abrupt halt in early March 2020. Due to the regulations the Operating Debtor was forced to cease operations on March 16, 2020.

Business Operations

The Operating Debtor's salon is its main asset (the "Salon"). It is approximately 6,500 square feet of loft-like space that has vast floor-to-ceiling windows that look out onto 57th Street with art, books, jewelry, and talented hair stylists. The Salon operates pursuant to commercial property lease from the mezzanine level of 432 Park Condominium (the "Building"). The landlord is MIP 57th Development Acquisition LLC ("Landlord"). The lease with the Landlord (the "Lease") is a ten-year lease that terminates in December 2028. At the time of the bankruptcy filing, the monthly rent under the Lease was approximately $90,000, and the Operating Debtor was in default of its payment obligations under the Lease in the total amount of $588,645.04, as alleged by the Landlord.

The Operating Debtor generated over $5.9 million in gross revenue in for about 8 months of operations in 2019. Operating Debtor was projected to generate $7.8 million in revenue in 2020, without accounting for the Covid-19 Pandemic or any of the talent acquisitions that were delayed due to the Covid-19 Pandemic. With the talent acquisitions, which were in process before the Covid-19 Pandemic, revenue was expected to rise to above approximately $10 million and make the business significantly more profitable.

JB I is a separate entity. It operated its own high end salon at Bergdorf Goodman from 1997- March 30, 2019. It has no business operations and no assets other than about $100,000 in cash from a pre-petition SBA loan and certain intellectual property (the John Barrett name). JB I is also the beneficiary of a $10 million insurance policy on the life of Mr. Barrett. The premiums for this policy have been paid by the Operating Debtor as part of the compensation package for Mr. Barrett. It has approximately $485,000 in unsecured debt, some of which is disputed.

Events leading to bankruptcy

As the excitement and rush of new customers steadied from the opening of the Salon, the Operating Debtor discovered significant discrepancies with what its then controller was advising and reporting to management. For instance, among other things, there were significant delays in entering payables into the operating budgets, incorrect amounts were logged, or monies misallocated, often showing the Operating Debtor to better position than it was in reality.

The Operating Debtor released the comptroller from his duties and hired an accounting firm to address and automate the accounting systems going forward. Golden Door Services LLC ("Golden Door") was then retained to act as the comptroller, as over time it would prove to be more cost effective than retaining in-house talent for limited work in what was then an extremely aggressive economy.

Given the cash flow issues that arose as a result of the comptroller, the Operating Debtor worked with its advisors and developed strategies to minimize overhead, while ensuring the customer experience was not significant altered. Through this process, the Operating Debtor cut $50,000 - $75,000 off of its monthly expenses.

As things began to right themselves, the Operating Debtor was in discussions for certain talent acquisitions that would have added significant revenue and profit to the business. Then the Covid-19 pandemic struck. In late February and early March 2020, the business began to slow rapidly, as people were told that they should stay at home. The Salon was officially shut down on March 16, 2020 in accordance with and in anticipation of the effective date of a statewide shelter in place order.

Operations While In Bankruptcy

(i) Stipulation with Landlord

The Debtors filed for bankruptcy on May 29, 2020. At the beginning of this case, the Operating Debtor and the Landlord litigated various issues surrounding the lease. On December 16, 2020, the Operating Debtor and the Landlord entered into a Stipulation and Consent Order to govern post-petition rent and related issues (the “Lease Stipulation”). The Lease Stipulation was approved by Court order on December 27, 2020 [Docket No. 101], and was extended from time to time. In accordance with the Lease Stipulation, inter alia, the Operating Debtor is obligated to pay 16.5% of its monthly gross sales to the Landlord as rent, but in any month that the Operating Debtor is unable to pay such amount, the Operating Debtor is required to pay a minimum of 10% of monthly gross sales, with the balance accruing as an administrative expense claim against the Operating Debtor under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. As of March 31, 2022, the Landlord asserted an administrative expense claim against the Operating Debtor of approximately $248,372.

(ii) Operations During Covid-19 era

The Operating Debtor’s business operations have been negatively impacted by Covid-19. Still, the Operating Debtor withstood two variants (Delta and Omicron) and has not terminated any of its 80+ employees. Indeed, towards the end of 2021 the Operating Debtor was grossing $138,000 per week in revenue. The Operating Debtor believes it is reasonable to anticipate the continued pace of growth as life normalizes.

(iii) Negotiations with Sweet

The Operating Debtor has an agreement in principle with a construction creditor, Sweet Construction Group (“Sweet”), who put a lien on the Landlord’s building. Under the parties’ agreement, Sweet will release its lien on terms set forth below, which helped clear a path towards negotiating a long term lease with the Landlord.

(iv) Tax Refund

During this case, the Debtors retained Mazars as its accountants to file amended tax returns. One amended return filed in Q1 2021 seeks a refund of about $308,000. This refund has been approved and the Operating Debtor expects to receive it, but no time frame has been given by the Internal Revenue Service. The Operating Debtor filed an amended return for Q2 2021 and seeks a refund of about $361,000. The Operating Debtor has not heard from the IRS as to whether this return has been approved.

(v) Sale of Life Settlement

JB I is the owner of a “key man” life insurance policy with Principal Life Insurance Policy (the “Policy”). The Policy is a $10 million term policy that can be converted to permanent, thereby making the Policy saleable on the open market. John Barrett (the individual) is the beneficiary.

On May 10, 2022, the Court approved JBI’s application to retain Valmark Securities Inc. as life settlement broker. JBI intends to file a motion to sell a portion of the Policy, and the proceeds will be used as set forth below. JBI believes that it could net at least $1.1 million from the sale of the Policy after payment of its broker fees (after court approval).

(iv) Motion to Covert/ Dismiss by U.S. Trustee

On March 23, 2022, the United States Trustee filed a motion to convert or dismiss these bankruptcy cases [Dkt. 181]. The motion asserts in part that the cases should be converted or dismissed because the Debtors had failed to file pre and post-petition taxes. As set forth below, the Debtors have cured this issue by filing all tax returns. The U.S. Trustee has voluntarily agreed to adjourn its motion as the Debtor seeks confirmation of the instant Plan.

B. Liquidation Analysis

To confirm this Plan, the Court must find that all creditors who do not accept this Plan will receive at least as much under this Plan as such claim holder would receive in a chapter 7 liquidation. For purposes of demonstrating this requirement, the Debtors have prepared a liquidation analysis attached hereto as Exhibit “A”.

C. Ability to Make Future Plan Payments and Operate Without Further Reorganization

The Debtors must also show that they will have enough cash over the life of the Plan to make the required Plan payments and operate the Debtors’ business. For purposes of demonstrating this requirement, the Debtors have prepared projected financial information attached hereto as Exhibit “B”, which reflects that the Debtors will have projected disposable income (as defined by § 1191(d) of the Bankruptcy Code) for the period described in § 1191(c)(2) to make the distributions to the creditors.

Notably, the foregoing projections are a conservative estimate. JBI is the beneficiary of a $10 million insurance policy on the life of John Barrett (the individual). The Plan contemplates that half of this Policy is monetized. JBI intends to sell additional portions of the Policy, if necessary, to help fund any shortfall of the Debtors’ obligations to pay administrative claims or priority tax claims. In addition, the Operating Debtor anticipates a tax refund in the amount of $669,598 a portion of which will be used to pay its obligations to Sweet in accordance with this Plan as well as unpaid professional fees.

ARTICLE I

SUMMARY

The Operating Debtor has negotiated an amended lease with its landlord. A copy of this amended lease is attached hereto as Exhibit C, and the terms are summarized below. With a long term lease in place, the Operating Debtor intends to emerge as a reorganized entity.

The Plan proposes to pay creditors of the Operating Debtor from funds generated by its operations as a going concern and from monies loaned from JBI. Creditors from JBI are to be paid from existing cash held by JBI and from the proceeds of the sale of the Policy.

The Plan provides for classes of claims for secured creditors, non-tax priority creditors, and unsecured creditors. The Plan also provide for separate classification among Operating Debtor's creditors and JBI's creditors.

The Plan provides for the full payment of administrative and priority claims in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code. The Operating Debtor's secured creditors (class 1(a), (b) and (c)) will not be paid in full and consent to that treatment; their claims are limited to the value of their collateral and deficiency claims are treated as general unsecured claims. Secured creditors in class 1(d) shall be paid in full. General unsecured creditors of the Operating Debtor holding Allowed Claims will receive distributions in accordance with the Debtor's projected disposable income as set forth in Exhibit B herein, which the Operating Debtor has valued at approximately <1%, over a period of five (5) years. General unsecured creditors of JBI will be paid in full. The actual distribution(s) percentage to general unsecured creditors will depend upon the total final Allowed general unsecured claims.

All creditors should refer to Articles III through VI of the Plan for information regarding the precise treatment of their claim.

ARTICLE III

TREATMENT OF ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSE CLAIMS, PRIORITY TAX CLAIMS AND COURT FEES

3.01 Unclassified Claims – Pursuant to § 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, statutory fees, administrative expense claims and priority tax claims are not classified.

3.02 Administrative Expense Claims - Each holder of an administrative expense claim Allowed under § 503 of the Bankruptcy Code, other than the claim of Sweet and tax authorities, will be paid in twenty (20) equal quarterly payments or upon such other terms as may be agreed upon by the holder of the claim and the Debtor.

Provided that Sweet releases its lien on the Landlord's building, the claim of Sweet will be allowed as an administrative claim in the amount of $550,000 and will be paid as follows: (i) $200,000 on the Effective Date, (ii) after the Effective Date as follows (a) $150,000 upon the Operating Debtor's receipt of its tax refund, and (b) $200,000 payable in twenty (20) equal quarterly payments.

The Debtors have also filed their overdue tax returns. The Operating Debtor has paid approximately $117,000 in post-petition sales taxes. The Operating Debtor believes that as of the Effective Date, there will be about $371,000 in unpaid post-petition sales taxes. The Debtors anticipate that with the sale of the Policy by JBI, sufficient funds will be available for the Operating Debtor to pay post-petition sales taxes and commercial rent taxes in full on the Effective Date.²

Administrative fees of professionals are subject to Court application and approval (and continue to accrue). Unpaid professional fee claims are estimated to be as follows:

Name	Title	Amount
Ballon Stoll Bader & Nadler PC	Counsel to the Debtors	$150,000 (estimated) ³
Mandelbaum Barrett PC	Counsel to the Debtors (substitute)	$35,000 (estimated) ⁴
Charles Persing	Sub-Chapter V Trustee	$80,000 (estimated) ⁵
Mazars	Accountants to the Debtors	$37,500 (estimated) ⁶

² On April 27, 2022, New York State filed an amended claim and asserted $491,588 in unpaid post-petition sales taxes. The Operating Debtor believes that the claim does not incorporate $117,000 in sales taxes that the Operating Debtor has paid post-petition. In addition, the Operating Debtor is attempting to have penalties and interest waived.

⁴ Upon Court approval, after application of retainer of $20,000 from Operating Debtor and $2,500 from JBI; fees will continue to accrue through confirmation of the Plan. The Debtors' projections call for initial payments to Mandelbaum Barrett of up to $40,000.

⁶ The Debtors' projections call for an initial payment made to Mazars of $27,500 upon approval of its fees, and the balance to be paid in 20 equal quarterly payments.

3.03 Priority Tax Claims – holders of priority tax claims against the Operating Debtor, allowed under § 507(a)(8) of the Bankruptcy Code, will be paid, in accordance with Section 1129(a)(9)(C) of the Bankruptcy Code, in twenty (20) equal quarterly payments with 10% interest. Priority tax claims consist of sales taxes owed by the Operating Debtor to New York State in the approximate aggregate amount of $400,000.⁷ JBI also owes taxes in the amount of $27,000, which will be paid on the Effective Date of the Plan.

3.04 Statutory Fees – All fees and charges required to be paid under 28 U.S.C. § 1930, including any applicable interest, shall be fully paid. Such fees and charges that are due on or prior to the Effective Date of the Plan, shall be paid on the Effective Date. Such fees, together with any applicable interest thereon, that may become due after the Effective Date of the Plan shall be paid as they become due by the Reorganized Debtor until this case is closed, dismissed, or converted to another chapter of the Bankruptcy Code. Because this case was filed as a Subchapter V case, the Debtors expect there to be no statutory fees.

ARTICLE IV

TREATMENT OF CLAIMS AND INTERESTS UNDER THE PLAN

4.01 On April 19, 2022, the Court entered an order setting June 1, 2022 as the deadline to file proofs of claim [Dkt 194]. Because the bar date has not yet passed, the Debtors are unable to estimate the proposed treatment of each class. The Debtors reserve the right to object to any claims. For purposes of disclosure, Allowed claims and interests shall be treated as follows under the Plan:

Class	Impairment	Amount	Treatment
Class 1(a) – Larry Flick secured claims	Impaired	$90,303	Class 1(a) consists of the Allowed Secured Claim of Larry Flick, to the extent of the value of this creditor’s collateral (pro rata share of $382,643 value on assets in liquidation analysis). This creditor’s deficiency claim is treated as a Class 3(a) claim. Upon the Effective Date of the Plan, the Class 1(a) claimant will be paid monthly installments of its proportionate share of $40,000 set aside annually for Class 1(a), (b), and (c) creditors until its Class 1(a) claims are paid in full. ⁷ On April 22, 2022, New York State filed an amended claim asserting a $400,000 priority claim. The Debtors have not had an opportunity to reconcile claims and use the proof of claim amount for purposes of disclosure.

ALLOWANCE AND DISALLOWANCE OF CLAIMS

5.01 Objections to Claims. The Debtors may continue to prosecute any objection to any claim filed prior to confirmation of the Plan after the Effective Date. Any Claim subject to an objection which has not been adjudicated by Final Order or otherwise resolved prior to Confirmation will be treated as a Disputed Claim under the Plan. Any further objections to Claims shall be filed by the Debtors no later than one hundred and twenty (120) days after the Effective Date, which deadline may be extended by the Court upon application or motion of the

Debtor without notice filed prior to the deadline. In the event that any proof of claim is filed, asserted or amended after the Effective Date, the Debtors shall have one hundred twenty (120) days from the date of such filing or notice to object to such claim, which deadline may be extended by the Court upon application or motion of the Debtors without notice filed prior to the deadline. 5.02 Disputed Claim Reserve. No distribution will be made on account of a Disputed Claim unless such Claim is Allowed. On any date that distributions are to be made under the terms of this Plan, the Disbursing Agent shall deposit in one or more accounts (either an attorney escrow account or a segregated account with a banking institution that is a depository authorized by the United States Trustee for bankruptcy cases in the Southern District of New York), cash equal to 100% of the cash that would be distributed on such date on account of Disputed Claims as if each such Disputed Claim were an Allowed Claim but for the pendency of a dispute with respect thereto, including, but not limited to (i) Disputed Claims that may be entitled to treatment as administrative expenses or as priority claims pursuant to §§ 503 and 507 of the Bankruptcy Code, (ii) claims of governmental units for any tax and (iii) any amount due but not payable on the Effective Date on account of administrative expenses or claims entitled to priority pursuant to §§ 503 and 507 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Disbursing Agent shall also segregate any interest, dividends or proceeds of such cash. Such cash together with any interest, dividends or proceeds thereof, be held in trust for the benefit of the holders of all such Disputed Claims pending determination of their entitlement thereto. Within fourteen (14) days after the entry of a Final Order resolving an objection to a Disputed Claim, the Disbursing Agent shall distribute all cash, including any interest, dividends or proceeds thereof, to which a holder is then entitled with respect to any Disputed Claim that has become an Allowed Claim.

ARTICLE VI

PROVISIONS FOR EXECUTORY CONTRACTS AND UNEXPIRED LEASES

6.01 Except as set forth in this Plan, all executory contracts or unexpired leases to which the Debtors are a party as of the Effective Date which were not previously rejected, assumed, or assumed and assigned by the Debtors shall be deemed assumed under the Plan as of the Effective Date in accordance with the provisions and requirements of §§ 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code.

The Operating Debtor intends to assume its Lease with MIP 57th Development Acquisition LLC. A copy of the form amended lease is attached hereto as Exhibit C. The amended terms are summarized as follows:

1. For the period commencing on June 1, 2022 (or the Effective Date, if after June 1, 2022) and ending on May 31, 2025 (the “Alternate Rent Period”), in lieu of the Fixed Rent which is otherwise payable under the Lease during such period, Operating Debtor shall pay a monthly sum equal to the greater of (i) $70,000.00 and (ii) 12.5% of Gross Sales (any amount payable pursuant to the foregoing subsection (ii), the “Gross Sales Rent”); provided, however, in the event that Operating Debtor is obligated to pay Gross Sales Rent as set forth above, Operating Debtor may defer payment of a portion of the Gross Sales Rent so that Operating Debtor only pays the greater of (a) $70,000.00 and (b) 11% of Gross Sales to Landlord in such month (any such deferred amounts, the “Deferred Amounts”). Any Deferred Amounts which accrue between January-June in any year shall be paid on or before July 31st of such year and any Deferred Amounts which accrue between July through December in any year shall be paid on or before the next occurring January 31st.

2. During the Alternate Rent Period, Operating Debtor shall continue to pay all additional rent otherwise payable under the Lease, including, without limitation, Tenant’s Tax Payment and Tenant’s Operating Expense Payment. After expiration of the Alternate Rent Period, Tenant shall continue to pay Fixed Rent and all additional rent in accordance with the original terms of the Lease.
3. Gross Sales shall be calculated exclusive of customary merchant fees and taxes as to be more fully defined in the Lease. Operating Debtor shall submit monthly statements of Gross Sales to Landlord together with any payment due on or before the tenth (10th) day of each month during the Alternate Rent Period.
4. Landlord and Operating Debtor agree that in the event of any future shutdowns of the Premises mandated by applicable law as a result of COVID-19, Landlord and Operating Debtor shall discuss reasonable rent relief (whether through abatement or deferral) given the circumstances of such closure.
5. (i) after Landlord’s application of the balance of the Letter of Credit against the current amount of arrears, and (ii) on the condition that the Operating Debtor waives and releases any claim to payment of the Owner’s Work Contribution (as such term is defined in the Lease), then:

The failure of any such counterparty to file a proof of claim within the period proscribed shall forever bar it from asserting against the Debtors or their estates any claim for damages arising from the rejection of its executory contract or unexpired lease with the Debtors. The filing of any such proof of claim shall be without prejudice to any and all rights that the Debtors may have to object to the allowance thereof on any and all available grounds.

ARTICLE VII

MEANS FOR IMPLEMENTATION OF THE PLAN

7.01 Funding of Plan. The distributions to the creditors of the Debtors that are to be made on and after the Effective Date under this Plan shall be funded from (i) the ongoing operations of the Operating Debtor, (ii) existing cash of the Debtors, (iii) proceeds from the sale of the Policy, and (iv) the tax refund expected by the Operating Debtor.

7.02 Avoidance Actions and Other Litigations. The Debtors will review and examine potential preference and other litigation claims against third parties in this case. Avoidance claims under Section 544, 547, 548 and 550 of the Bankruptcy Code as well as causes of action against third parties will be reviewed by the Debtors, and pursued in the exercise of the Debtors' business judgment, which are beneficial to the applicable Debtors' estate. Any and all litigation recoveries received by the Debtors, net of professional fees and costs, will be distributed 50% to the Debtors for operations and/or capital expenditures, and 50% to Allowed Claims in accordance with Articles III and IV above, and the claim priorities under the Bankruptcy Code and lien priorities under applicable non-bankruptcy law.

The Debtors reserve the right to prosecute all causes of action, including the counterclaims against Hand Baldachin & Amburgey listed in JBI's schedules.

7.03 Sale of Policy. JBI intends to seek Court approval of the sale of the Policy. Upon closing of such sale, JBI intends to (i) pay its creditors with Allowed claims in full, (ii) set aside a reserve to pay claims to which it shall object, and (iii) loan sufficient cash to the Operating Debtor to pay the following:

- NYS sales taxes in full (approximately $371,000)

- Initial final fee application payment to Professionals ($60,000 to Mr. Persing as Subchapter V Trustee, $40,000 to Mandelbaum, $27,500 to Mazars)

JBI intends to sell additional portions of the Policy, if necessary, to help fund any shortfall of the Debtors' obligations to pay administrative claims or priority tax claims. The Operating Debtor shall continue paying premiums associated with the Policy.

7.04 Tax Refund.

The Operating Debtor expects an additional $669,598 in tax refunds. There is no estimate on when these funds will be received.

7.05 Exemption from Taxes

transfer under this Plan as confirmed by the Court, (including any instrument of transfer executed in furtherance of the sale of the Policy as contemplated by the Plan), shall not be subject to tax under any law imposing a stamp tax, real estate transfer tax, mortgage recording tax or similar tax due on the sale or transfer of the property in connection with or in furtherance of the Plan as confirmed by the Court and the funding requirements contained herein and shall not be subject to any state, local or federal law imposing such tax and the appropriate state or local government officials or agents shall forego collection of any such tax or governmental assessment and accept for filing and recordation any of the foregoing instruments or other documents without the payment of any such tax or governmental assessment.
